EXHIBITS ADMITTED DURING TESTIMONY OF SPECIAL AGENT VICKI HUMPHREYS

At the conclusion of the direct examination of Special Agent Vicki Humphreys, the government moved the admission of numerous trial exhibits shown to Agent Humphreys in the course of her testimony, and a number of others not shown to her based on the agreement of the defendants. At the suggestion of defense counsel, and with the explicit approval of the Court, the government was directed to file a list of each of the trial exhibits that was admitted by the Court in lieu of reading each of the numbers in Court in the presence of the jury.

In accordance with this instruction from the Court, and with the specific request that this filing be made a part of the official trial record in this case, the United States of America identifies each of the exhibits admitted into evidence today, along with the two exhibits to which objections were lodged by defense counsel and which await final determination by the Court regarding admissibility:
